REPUBLICANS WIN:

Example Set for Colorado in Various States.

ELECTIONS YESTERDAY.

Returns Show Large Republican Gains Especially Where Manufactories are Beautiful—Cheering Returns From Other States.

TOPEKA, April 2.—Hon. John W. Leedy won a marvelous victory to day in yesterday's election. Returns now indicate that his majority over Theodore Davis, leading opponent, will exceed 12,000. With him is elected the entire Republican ticket. Mr. Caldwell is presented the straight Republican ticket, Horstman the Citizens or Reform ticket and Isaac Miller the Democrats. Returns all in give the following results: Caldwell 26,072, Horstman 14,501, Miller 11,571, scattering 1000. This is an increase vote of about 18,000 over the vote polled one year ago.

In Kansas the Democrats elected the mayor. The remainder of the city ticket is divided. A heavy vote was polled. At Delphos and a Democratic victory is reported. The anti saloon candidates at Marietta were successful. Republican tickets at Tiffin, Upper Sandusky and Warren were elected by majorities. A mixed ticket was elected at Wooster, the Republicans making substantial gains.

Republicans will fill all the municipal offices at Trenton Newark and Massillon are Democratic. The religious issue is prominent at the latter place and there are minor disturbances are reported.

In Iowa the entire Republican ticket was elected with the exception of councilmen. The Republicans won a victory at Mansfield, electing the entire ticket for the first time in history of the city and making gains in council and board of education. The party lines were largely obliterated in Iowa the Republican ticket was elected. The Democrats of Davenport elected their entire city and county tickets excepting mayor and councilman. The saloon men won a victory.

In Ohio the fight was a hot one, the Democratic ticket winning by a small plurality. The election at Canton resulted in a victory for the Democrats. Hamilton has always been a Democratic city.

IN COLUMBUS.

COLUMBUS, O., April 2.—The Republicans carried this city to-day by a plurality of the head of ticket, police judge, of 1500. This is a gain over McKinley's vote of last fall of 2000. The Republicans also secure an increased majority in the new City Council and the School Board.

DECREASED MAJORITIES.

CLEVELAND, O., April 2.—The Republicans were victorious in the municipal elections here to-day, but by majorities decreased from those of last fall. The P. A. showed little strength.

In Michigan.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 2.—The Republicans made nearly a clean sweep of city and town elections in western Michigan to-day. In this city they elected E. B. Fisher, mayor, and the whole ticket, and carried Kent county for board of supervisors.

Kansas Elections.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 2.—Cities of the first class elected officers to day. The issues were purely on local lines and had no political significance in any case. In one town in which the women took an active part the entire ticket was Enterprise, where an independent ticket, headed by Mrs. M. J. Kelly, wife of a well known merchant, was put up in opposition to the citizens ticket headed by J. F. Buhrer. The contest was very close, with the women ahead in the lead at last accounts. In the first and second-class cities will be a continuous.

Vote cross opposite the Eagle.

Returns from Iowa.

DES MOINES, Ia., April 2.—Returns from municipal elections in this State are coming in slowly. In this city the only question was agitated to some extent. At midnight both the Republican and Citizens' Central committees were claiming the election of their entire ticket. Peter Olinger is elected Mayor by a majority, carrying with him the entire Democratic ticket. Only 1 vote was polled at Keokuk. The Democrats claim the Council, but the Republicans make gains in several wards.

Congressman President Cleveland.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 2.—The silver men of Tennessee have opened in earnest. Davidson county Democratic convention today adopted a resolution denouncing President Cleveland and endorsing Senator Isham G. Harris's course in opposing the repeal of the Sherman act. The feeling among Democrats towards Mr. Cleveland is bitter and the leaders of the party say that he could not be elected constable in any precinct in Tennessee.

FORTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The debate on the tariff bill was opened in the Senate today with a speech by the chairman of the committee on Finance, Mr. Voorhees (Dem.) of Indiana. The speech was made from printed slips but was delivered with as much earnestness and vehemence as though it were an extemporaneous effort. It occupied just two hours and had a large and attentive audience on the floor and in the galleries. The McKinley tariff was denounced as a robbery and was contrasted with the Walker tariff of 1846 as "free and glorious memory." The provision of the McKinley bill was characterized as a jumble and a fraud as to the reciprocity of it, it was declared to be an "unconstitutional law."

As to the income tax, the opinion came, Mr. Voorhees defended from "the narrow and contracted selfishness of riches," while discussing this point he declined to yield. At the close of the speech, which has displaced the Rucker bill, and is now the "unfinished business," went over till to-morrow when the Republican side of the question will be presented by Senator Allison of Iowa. A demand has been made by Mr. Hoar that the bill shall have its second reading in full, and on Mr. Harris (Dem.) of Tennessee expressing his willingness to have it read "line by line and word by word," Mr. Hoar said that was just what he proposed.

Some time was given to the Bering Sea bill, but as it had not been printed, it went over till to-morrow. The Senate at 5:25 adjourned.

HOUSE.

No business whatever was accomplished in the House to-day. As soon as the journal had been read the contested election case of O'Neill vs. Joy from the Eleventh district of Missouri was taken up and four and a half hours spent in unavailing attempts to secure the vote of a quorum of the House upon the pending motion. At 4:35 o'clock Mr. Patterson (Dem.) of Tennessee abandoned the effort and the House adjourned until noon to-morrow.

Mr. Patterson gave notice that he would ask the House to sit continuously from to-morrow noon until the case has been disposed of.

ANOTHER OBJECT LESSON.

Nearly Two Thousand Men go Out on a Strike in Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 2.—Fully 1000 men representing plumbers, painters, brickmakers, machinists, brass, steel and iron workers are on a strike to day for higher wages or against the reduction ordered by their former employers. Besides this army there are 600 cigar makers on a strike who are perfecting an organization to enforce their demands. All the other strikers are strongly organized and affiliated with district or national bodies. This morning all the men of the Journeymen Plumbers association, from 1200 to 1500, walked out of the shops and buildings where they had been employed. Several hundred members of the Junior Plumbers' association joined them. The plumbers refuse to accept a reduction in their wages from $3.75 to $3.25 and $3 a day, with a proportionate reduction in the wages of the junior plumbers. The plumbers are also asked to provide their own furnaces in future. They have $30,000 and the backing of the building trades council with which they fight the master plumbers. This is their first fight in eight years. Then they struck for an 8-hour day and were out less than an hour. Four hundred union painters joined the idle host because the bosses refused to pay the old rate of 35 cents an hour. The striking cigarmakers are ready to compromise.

Vote early to-day.

COXEY'S ARMY.

They Camped Last Night at Sewickley, Penna.

SEWICKLEY, Penna., April 2.—Over eighteen miles of fine roads, a line of curious humanity extending continuously over almost the entire route, the Coxey hosts marched to-day. At 7 o'clock to-night a vacant lot in the center of this fashionable town was encamped upon by the motley brigade, the Sewickley people standing almost amazed at the sight. The men were very tired from their long tramp and endured the long delay necessary to erect their tents and prepare supper with rather ill contentment.

The objections to the poor board served yesterday appeared this morning to have had a good effect as the meal then served was a substantial one.

Just before the start 150 students of Geneva college, a co educational school near Campvalley Forge, appeared and requested a speech. By complying, Coxey and Browne delayed the command until 10:30. It was a fourteen-mile tramp to Economy, where luncheon was to be served. The line of march through the valley towns was a wonderful sight. As the army passed through fifty wheelmen and a mob of boys headed it, while the ragged troops trundled along to the rear and thousands looked on. This order continued with few changes until near Economy. The men marched well, reaching the Harmonites Home at 3 o'clock. There a most substantial cold lunch was served in the open air and an hour's rest indulged in.

From that point the tramp to Sewickley was through the most delightful portion of the upper Ohio valley, where some of the finest residences in Allegheny county are situated. From all points came fashionably dressed horsemen, people in carriages, on bicycles and on foot. At the edge of the town Sheriff Richards of Allegheny county and three deputies met the army. It developed that Messrs. Way and Long of the town had petitioned for the sheriff and furthermore the towns people seemed to be badly scared at the army and apprehensive of fearful results of its visit. A detail of detectives from Pittsburg and Allegheny, headed by Inspector McKelvey accompanied the troops from Beaver Falls to this point. After a careful inspection McKelvey stated that there were but four men known to him as "crooks." They are on the lookout for Pittsburg "crooks" who crowded into the town to-night. While the authorities have no fear of any trouble with the Coxey army they are afraid of local "crooks" taking advantage of the excitement. General orders issued to-night announce the march to Pittsburg is to begin at 9:30 o'clock to-morrow morning. The camp at Allegheny will be called Camp Kirkland.

Vote the Republican ticket.

A Battle With the Dalton Gang.

GUTHRIE, Okla., April 2.—At Sacred Heart Mission, in the Pottawatomie reservation last night a party of marshals had a desperate hand to hand battle with the Dalton gang of outlaws whom they were attempting to arrest. Bill Dalton, leader of the gang, George Thorne, one of his men, and a deputy marshal were all fatally wounded.

In Memory of the Late Judge Symmes.

DENVER, April 2.—The memory of the late Judge Symmes, ex-Congressman and prominent capitalist of this city, was honored by memorial exercises being held in the Supreme court here to-day. Eulogistic addresses were delivered by Hon. Charles Thomas and Chief Justice Hayt.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, April 3. For Tuesday—Generally fair; north winds; decidedly colder in southeast portion.

CRIPPLE CREEK.

Latest News from El Paso's Great Gold Camp.

POLITICS ARE RED HOT THERE.

Trouble Feared Between Police and Deputy Sheriffs—The Portland Mine Adopts the Independence Schedule—Other News.

Special to THE GAZETTE.

CRIPPLE CREEK, April 2.—The belief has been quite prevalent that the miners would soon find it hard to get a living and that there would be much suffering. Yesterday a representative of THE GAZETTE was shown a small sized grocery store located near the Holden mill, in which all of the goods are done up in packages. These packages are to be distributed among the miners who are in the greatest need. The goods were purchased in Pueblo by the Miner's union.

The local political campaign this year is a red hot one. Eight fights took place in an hour and a half yesterday afternoon. Fifty extra policemen have been put on in anticipation of trouble to-morrow, especially with the deputy sheriffs. A telegram was sent this evening by Mayor Whiting to Sheriff Bowers telling him that if the deputy sheriffs at camp interfere with the election in any way they will be locked up. It is not known that the Sheriff has any interest in the fight, which is a three cornered one, but some of his deputies here want to see the Citizens' ticket elected. Trouble is feared.

A branch of the Creamery restaurant of Denver was opened here to day with a banquet tendered to the members of the city government, the local press and correspondents of outside papers. There were present representatives of the Colorado Springs GAZETTE and the Denver Republican, News, Times, and the Cripple Creek Crusher and The Journal, the mayor of the town, city attorney, police magistrate and others. The branch establishment equals in elegance the parent house in Denver.

After some vexatious delays the Holden Chlorination mill at Lawrence was started this afternoon. This mill has a capacity of forty tons per day and all the expert mill men who have examined it say that it is constructed with a view to running every pound of that amount regularly.

The Portland is shipping considerable ore at present.

It was reported about town this afternoon that an important strike had been made in the No. 4 shaft of the Independence.

The Portland Gold Mining company has been reorganized, with W. S. Stratton as president, H. K. Devereaux as vice-president, W. S. Ward, general manager, has been relieved and Chas. J. Moore substituted, while John Harmon has been appointed superintendent. This morning the miners were informed that hereafter only two shifts would be employed on the property; that the day shift would go on at 7 o'clock in the morning and work till 5 in the afternoon, out of which an hour would be taken for dinner; that the night shift would go on at 6 o'clock and work till 3, from which an hour would be taken for supper. The manager, however, informed the men that in the future the company would pay $3.25 for each shift, the scale being the same as that now adopted by the Independence.

Charles J. Moore, the new manager of the Portland, is one of the very best men in his line in Colorado.

The original lease on the Pike's Peak, now owned by A. D. De Masters and A. J. Perrault, is looking better now that it has for some time. The property changed management on March 13 and on Saturday last twenty-one tons of high grade ore was sent to the smelters. In the 100-foot level a five inch seam of talc was found ten days ago on which miners are now stoping. The stuff averages twenty ounces in gold to the ton. Forty men are now employed in this property.

The lessees on the Pike's Peak No. 2 made a shipment to-day. The ore on this lead is even richer than from the original Pike's Peak.

The Hawkeye, located in the draw between Bull hill and Battle mountain, is being worked. The shaft is now fifty feet deep.

Chas. Powers, manager of the Necessity on Battle mountain, is making quite a good showing on that property with an expenditure of a very little money. They have two very promising veins exposed, both of which are being explored.

The vein on the Wichita, which Mr. J. F. Jones's men discovered a short time ago, has been sunk in that property for a distance of 130 feet. At no place so far has it been found to be less than nine feet between walls. The ore is not high grade but Mr. Jones is confident that the time is near at hand when he can have it all treated at a profit.

Some new development work was begun yesterday on the west end of the Londonderry.

William Clark, who has prospected some in a claim near the trail between Cripple Creek and Anaconda, made quite an important strike to-day. A five-foot vein of quartz was found within a few feet of the surface, which contained a pay streak several inches in width, which averages $180 per ton.

WAITE'S WAR.

Now the Attorney-General Applies for an Injunction.

DENVER, April 2.—Another phase was given to the fire and police board emgleton to-day when Attorney-General Engley applied to the Supreme Court for a writ of mandamus to compel Messrs. Orr and Martin of the old board to turn over the property of the police department to Messrs. Mullins and Barnes, the Governor's new appointees, pending the settlement of the question as to who are the legal members of the board. The Supreme Court will render a decision to-morrow upon the question of jurisdiction in this regard.

Only the Governor and the Board of Pardons stand between three men and death, the Supreme Court to-day refusing to grant the petitions for a rehearing in the cases of the murderers, William Neebitt, Thomas Jordan and Santiago Torres and set the date for their execution for the week beginning April 22. Neebitt was convicted and sentenced for the murder of Elizabeth Irwin. Santiago Torres killed a man named Williams in Pueblo, and Jordan killed August Gisin at the Globe smelter in this city.

Governor Waite may commute their sentences after the Board of Pardons acts.

Dr. A. F. McKay, editor of "American Climates and Resorts," the organ of the American Health Resort Association, is in the city. He proposes to write up the advantages of Colorado Springs as a health resort for the next number of his paper, which has a very wide circulation, especially among physicians. This will be the best sort of an advertisement for the city, because it will go where it will do the most good, and will be authoritative statement by an experienced physician and climatologist of the highest and most widely extended reputation.

The police force of this city is splendidly organized considering that it is so small. To Mr. Dana is due the credit for this. Our police force has gained much credit during the last year for the work it has done in bringing offenders to justice. The city made an experiment four years ago in trying an inexperienced man in the office of marshal, and the result was a scandal and the final resignation of the officer and the restoring of Mr. Dana to the place before the end of the year.

A patient at the county hospital named Little, who had been brought down from camp some time since suffering with pneumonia, died yesterday afternoon. Yesterday morning about 3 o'clock the man in delirium of the fever got up out of bed and escaped from the house. He wandered down to the Alamo park in his underclothing and, about 6 o'clock was picked up by a policeman. Dr. Long did everything possible to relieve him, but the chill and exhaustion from the walk proved fatal.

[illegible] delegates are expected. Some prominent workers from abroad are expected and some have already stated their determination to be present.

The Colorado Telephone company will have its second wire stretched to Cripple Creek by this evening. This will give three metallic circuits to camp. The workmen will keep right on and lay a second wire between this city and Denver before they cease.

It Was There, After All.

It is supposed that business letters are deficient in humor. Still there have been exceptions, and the very latest, sent by a member of the well known wholesale soapmaking firm (let us say) of Cake & Son, is one of the most brilliant. A retail dealer in a small way had sent for a consignment of their goods. "Gentlemen," he writes, "wherefor have you not sent me the sope? His it bekawse you think my money is not so good as nobody else's? Dam you, Cake & Son! wherefor have you not sent the sope? Please send sope at once, and oblige your respectful servant, Richard Jones. P. S.—Since writing the above, my wife has found the sope under the counter."—Youth's Companion.

"Yes, yes," said the breathless listeners. "What did you do?"

Dr. Tucker's Funeral.

The remains of Dr. B. St. George Tucker were laid at rest in Evergreen cemetery yesterday. The funeral occurred from the house at 12 o'clock, Rev. Philip Washburn, rector of St. Stephen's church, officiating. The attendance of friends and the many beautiful floral tributes gave testimonial to the love and esteem in which the dead physician was held. The El Paso County Medical society attended in a body, and the pall bearers were selected from among the members of the medical profession. Dr. Tucker was greatly esteemed by the physicians of the city not only for his gentle manners and friendliness, but for his learning in their science and strict professional bearing.

Dr. B. St. George Tucker was born in Williamsburg, Va., fifty-five years ago, and was the son of Judge Nathaniel Beverly Tucker of Virginia, a prominent lawyer of his day, who was appointed a United States district judge in the western circuit by President Pierce. The family is among the oldest and most prominent in the Old Dominion, the grandfather of Dr. Tucker having been a half-brother of John Randolph of Roanoke. Dr. Tucker was educated at William and Mary college; later he was a student in the medical department at the University of Virginia and then graduated in medicine at the University of New York. He served for some time in the hospitals of New York city and was thus engaged when the war broke out. He enlisted in the Confederate service and served through the entire war on the staff of General Mahone. At the close of the war he settled in Richmond, Va., and remained until 1869, when he removed to Marshall, Mo. In 1880 Dr. Tucker came to this city to make his home and soon acquired a large practice. In early life he was married to Miss Lila Mercer of Williamsburg, Va., who with six children survives him. The children are Lila and Zetta, two daughters, John S., paying teller at the First National bank, Dr. Beverly Tucker, who for the past two years has been his father's partner and assistant, Hugh, now attending the Boston Polytechnic school, and St. George, attending William and Mary college.

There are few citizens of Colorado Springs who have died in late years who have been so sincerely and universally mourned as Dr. Tucker.

The Scientific Society.

At the meeting of the Scientific society held at Palmer hall on Friday afternoon two papers were read, neither of which were in the line of ordinary scientific discussion.

Professor Loud, who gave the first paper, discussed the possibilities of the construction of a practical flying machine. Scientific men have for some time been aware that Professor S. P. Langley was making experiments looking to the solution of the problem of flight through the air, and have been eager to hear the results of his trials, since he is known to be an accurate and clever scientist, although few of them have believed the investigation worthy of serious consideration. Professor Joseph Le Conte has written two papers on this subject, one in 1888 and the other very lately, (Popular Science Monthly for April, 1894), in which he takes the ground that a flying machine for man is practically impossible. He admits, however, at the close of his second paper that Professor Langley's latest results, which he hadonly seen after writing his article, puts the matter in a much more favorable light than was believed possible before. Professor Loud showed in a most interesting way how the problem had been studied first with the bird for a model, then and generally up to this time with the balloon as a starting point, but that now an aeroplane, or a sort of kite was being used in experiments, going back to the bird model once more. No doubt if all the conditions of flight were as they have long been assumed to be, flight for man would be impossible, but as was shown in the paper, much lighter and stronger materials are now available, and power much greater and capable of storage in smaller space than ever before, could be utilized in our day, so that new possibilities are opened before us. The views concerning the soaring of birds have of late been greatly changed, and the Professor suggested that the whirling eddies of the wind which enable the bird to soar with almost motionless wings might be utilized to move the aeroplane as it did the eagle. Altogether the paper was exceedingly suggestive and interesting and it is to be hoped that Professor Loud will consent to publish it.

Professor Cajori's entertaining paper on "Table Tipping in Milan and Massachusetts," gave the results of experiments conducted by scientific men well known to the public, with a view to the verification and explanation of these mysterious phenomena. Such men as the Astronomer Schiaparelli at Milan and Professor E. A. Dolbear of Tufts College, not to mention others associated with them in their several tests, lead us to pay unusual attention to the reports from these two widely separated localities. The experimenters, it must be confessed, were baffled in their efforts to detect the methods by which the mediums—in each case a woman—brought about the singular performances narrated. Not all of those present at the seances were convinced that the results were obtained through some trick on the part of the "psychic," though some of those present at the Milan seances were convinced the medium was, as she appeared, an honest but ignorant peasant woman. Most of the experiments were performed in darkened rooms certainly the scientists seem to have been in the dark all of the time. The efforts made to prevent fraud on the part of the medium in either set of trials were grotesque and amusing but seemed to the speaker crude and careless. In each case there appear to be some circumstances connected with the experiments which leads to doubt as to the exclusion of trickery. Professor Cajori suggested some of the points at which the experiments were open to suspicion and pointed out means whereby the effects might have been produced by other than spiritual forces.

A paper by Professor Rudolph Keck on the examination of the "Darwinian Hypothesis" was also presented, but not read on account of lateness of the hour.

Troop A Held Court.

The boys of Company A had a good time last night. They held a "Kangaroo court." It seems that it had come to their ears that at the time they were ordered to Cripple Creek and it was supposed that they would have to go up over Cheyenne mountain, a man by the name of O. B. Wilcox made some hard talk about them. It is claimed that he said they ought to be killed and explained how it could be done in a way calculated to make a timid person nervous. Wilcox is a great Populist and an agitator of the most approved plan. Last night he was invited to visit the armory and did so. The boys seized him and proceeded to have a trial. The culprit was found guilty and sentenced. He was pale when he came in but was variegated when he went out. A member of the company applied some black stuff to his face that is warranted to stay. Then he was swiftly but not harshly ejected from the room, each member giving a slight impetus to the movement as he passed along.

Vote early to-day.

Lewis Morrison as "The Devil".

It is not often that a newspaper is called upon to speak editorially of an actor, but this is what the New York Sun did of Lewis Morrison complimenting him highly on his performance of Mephisto in Faust:

"There has been much discussion of late years as to the existence of this personage. Some people proclaim their belief in a personal devil while others as emphatically deny his very existence. The idea of Satan has been utilized in literature for ages. Some of the grandest poems have had their foundation on this theme. The drama especially has benefitted by him and many plays owe their very existence to him. Perhaps no play of this nature has enjoyed greater popularity than the adaptation of Goethe's immortal masterpiece 'Faust.' No play affords greater scope for scenic and mechanical effects. Henry Irving in England and Lewis Morrison in America have both found it to be not only remunerative but artistically suited to their several needs. Mr. Morrison especially has found the part of Mephisto in 'Faust' adapted to him. Unlike the Englishman, he makes Mephisto a smiling, unctious devil, one well calculated to deceive the unwary. This treatment of the part makes the contrast between the light airy scenes and the weird uncanny ones stronger."

Mr. Morrison will be at the opera house next Thursday evening and no doubt large audiences will be in attendance to see the Devil in person.

Saturday evening there was quite a disturbance at a negro dive on Huerfano street and an inquiry from one of the participants brought forth the answer that Robert Donbelly, who is running for marshal on the Populist ticket, was setting up the beer for the colored boys. They also had the promise of another keg last night but whether it was forthcoming could not be learned. This item is respectfully referred to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and other voters who have been industriously harangued by Pop heelers of late to turn the old force out. It is said that a man by the name of "Bill" Cadle has been stating that he is to be night captain if Donnelly should happen to get into office.

The first annual exhibition of the Denver Artists' club is announced to be opened on April 12. The exhibition will probably be held in the Fine Arts building of the Denver university. The exhibition is not a private affair. Artists of this vicinity who expect to exhibit should address Henrietta Brown wall, the secretary, immediately and obtain entry blanks.

VOTE TO-DAY.

It is very important that a full vote should be got out to-day. It may not be necessary, in order to elect the Republican ticket, but it may be necessary, even for that; and in order to make the lesson impressive, we want the largest majority possible. This is a good opportunity to convince everybody that the people of Colorado Springs do not want a Populist administration of either city, State or county affairs—a good time to repudiate all appearance of sympathy with Waite or any of his methods or his friends and associates.

This is a good time, too, for the women to show that they take an active and intelligent interest in the management of city affairs, and we think they are going to do it. It is just as important to them as to the men that we should have clean and properly kept streets, plenty of water for irrigation and household use, and an honest and economical administration of city affairs in general.

Further, all the women voters, presumably, are now registered. If they vote this time, they will not have to register again; but if they do not vote now, they will have to register again before they can vote at any future election. It will therefore be conducive to their own convenience and comfort to vote this time.

The best time to vote is in the morning, and the earlier the better. There is never a crowd at the polls then, and it takes only a minute or two to go in and make out and deposit your ballot. If you leave it until later in the day, something may occur to prevent your going at all.

So much has already been said about the candidates, and they are so well known, that it is unnecessary to repeat that all those on the Republican ticket are good men, and especially good men for the places for which they have been nominated. Messrs. Hale, Guitin, Reid and Owen, on the general ticket, have already served the city in the offices to which they have been nominated, and every one of them has given excellent satisfaction. The city cannot do better than continue them where they have done so well. Everybody in town knows that Sam Kinsley is a good lawyer and a good Republican, and will make an excellent City Attorney. If you want to know about his professional standing, ask any good lawyer in the city.

For Street Supervisor, Mr. O. R. Dunnington has the best qualifications. He is well acquainted with our streets and with street work, and will make as good an officer as we could possibly have in that place. It is only fair to say that Mr. Edwards has made a good record as Street Commissioner, although there has been some complaint, especially of late; but Mr. Edwards is running as a Populist, and we do not think the people of this town want any Populists in office, as such, and it would be as such that Mr. Edwards would consider himself elected, if he should be elected. Mr. Dunnington is just as competent as Mr. Edwards to take care of the streets, and he is not a Populist.

As for the Aldermen, Mr. Dunbar is too well known to need endorsement before the citizens of the First ward. He devotes a large amount of time to the duties of his office, and is one of the most efficient men in the City Council. Mr. Hughes is as well known in the Second ward as Mr. Dunbar is in the First, and known as favorably. There is no reason for any "independent" voting on Aldermen in the Second ward. In the Third ward, Mr. J. C. Plumb, who is the Republican nominee for Alderman, has already served the county well as County Commissioner, and would serve the city just as well. Mr. Wesley Nethers, in the Fourth ward, is very popular, and there is no reason to doubt his election by a good majority. He will poll, not only the full party vote, but a large personal vote as well. In the Fifth ward, the voters have an opportunity to re-elect one of the most capable men on the present board, Mr. J. A. Leech. Mr. Leech has not only served his constituents of the west side with fidelity, but he is a good man for the city at large to have in that place. We suppose there is no doubt of his election.

As a whole, the Republican ticket is one of the best ever put before the voters, and it will be a triumph for the cause of good government if it is elected from top to bottom without a break. So turn out in force to-day, and turn out early, and vote the straight Republican ticket, and the interests of the city will be well served, and you will have the proud consciousness of having done your duty.

Vote to-day that you may remain on the registry list and be able to vote for a Governor and other State officers at the next election. The Republicans often lose an election because of indifference, the other parties never. It is your duty to vote to-day and you cannot afford to neglect it.

Don't get Dr. G. Populist Robinson mixed up with Dr. J. Republican Robinson. It is the former that is running for Alderman in the First ward, and you don't want to vote for him, but for Simeon J. Dunbar.

You have not done your whole duty until you have voted the Republican ticket and have seen to it that your friends have gone and done likewise.

Since the Republican majority was from five to eight hundred at the last election, with the aid of the ladies' vote it ought to be fifteen hundred now.

We expect that the election will show a much larger percentage of Republican voters among the women of Colorado Springs than among the men.

If you wish to endorse Governor Waite and his acts, vote the Populist ticket. If you wish to repudiate him and his acts, vote the Republican ticket.

It this is your first vote, vote the straight Republican ticket and you will always be proud of it. There is nothing like getting started right.

Vote early, as the afternoon may be stormy and disagreeable. Elections are often lost or won in the forenoon.

Ask yourself why you intend to vote the Populist ticket or any part of it, and you will not do it.

Vote the Republican ticket to-day and set the proper pace for the State election next fall.

Make a cross in the little square by the eagle, is the way to do it.

The Street Supervisor.

To the Republican Voters:

Much has been said of the abilities of the present Street Supervisor that would, if true, fairly entitle him to a re-election. Much of the commendation bestowed belongs to the Street and Ditch committee, under whose direction Mr. Edwards works, and whose chairman is Alderman Leech. That the streets of this city are in good repair is not questioned by any one, but they have been brought to their present condition by the patient and persistent efforts of former administrations. Thousands of dollars have been expended in filling with earth taken from cellars during the building period of this city and it remained for the present incumbent under competent direction to finish the work in many parts of the city almost complete before his election to his present position. The idea that any great credit is due to the present Street Commissioner is absurd to any one who knows that the work on the streets is done under the direction of the Street and Ditch committee. Give this credit to whom the credit is due, to the present Committee on Streets, Bridges, Alleys and Ditches.

ONE WHO KNOWS.

The Irrigation Movement.

Active preparations are now being made for the next National Irrigation Congress to be held about Sept. 15, at some point in the West not yet determined on. The last congress, which was in session an entire week in Los Angeles, October, 1893, appointed commissioners in every Western State and Territory, whose duty it is to prepare a report to be submitted to the coming congress covering all the features of special interest in each State and Territory of the Arid West. These reports will show the amount of arid and semi-arid land; the amount of land now irrigated, and the acreage believed to be irrigable; the sources of water supply, developed and possible of development; the cost of procuring, storing, and delivering water on lands; State legislation, in force and needed; national legislation as to the disposition of arid lands and government control of water sources, and such other points as may suggest themselves to each commission as being pertinent to their own State.

The commission for Colorado is composed of J. F. Rocho, Hardin, chairman; F. G. Carpenter, Fort Collins; Platt Rogers, Denver; J. S. Green, Pueblo; W. S. Carpenter, Cortez.

The citizens of this State are cordially invited to correspond with any of these gentlemen, and give them such information as they may possess on the points to be covered by their report, as it is designed to cover every point of interest which can be suggested. Information covering the work of the national committee can be obtained from Fred L. Alles, secretary, Los Angeles, Cala., and information as to the work in this State from any of the commissioners named above.

She Had All She Wanted of Planning Ahead.

"There is such a thing as planning too far ahead," remarked Mrs. Hinman on arriving at her brother's house after a day's journey. "Now, here I am tired to death. Had to wait over an hour at that junction, where there wasn't even a box to sit on, and my trunk nobody knows where, just because I planned ahead so far."

"Why, Aunt Martha, I don't see how that can be! You always say"

"Yes, I know I do. But I never shall again. A week ago yesterday I bought my ticket, so's to be sure of it. I asked carefully about every train and wrote down all they told me—what time, what towns I should pass through and all. Then the day before I started I sent my trunk to the station and got a check for it, so's to be sure it wouldn't be left, and this morning I got to the depot an hour before it was time for the train to start.

"I felt as calm and composed as could be. I only had a little package and my satchel and umbrella and the box of luncheon Mary fixed for me and my shawl, so I didn't have nothing on my mind. My ticket was in my pocketbook, and so was the check for my trunk.

"Well, I saw the train standing there with a ticket on it telling the names of the places it was going to, and I read them all over so's to be sure I was right, and seeing Millville on it plain as print I got right into the car and sat down.

"Thadn't set more'n 10 minutes before the car filled up and started off. I thought it was starting early, but I felt real pleased to think I was in good season. That train stopped more times an hour than I should like to say, and 'bout noon the conductor came into the car and shouted out a great long tirade.

"I didn't pay any attention to it at the time because I thought I had found out my whole course a week before, but as I stood round there at that junction I remembered that he said something about taking the back car for way stations.

"The whole story is that I took a train that started 50 minutes before the one I ought to have taken, and by being so well prepared for my journey I didn't pay proper attention to things, and was switched off on another road without perceiving it.

"And by getting a check for my trunk it was sent on a day too soon, and I can't get it till they've dug it out from under a lot more baggage, and instead of coming here in three hours it has taken me 6 hours and 40 minutes.

"Don't talk to me about planning ahead again. It's been almost the death of me this time."—Youth's Companion.

...table specimen of ore from ...mine at Cripple Creek, was ...ced on exhibition at the office of the Chamber of Commerce. Through the specimen runs a streak of tellurium, of a beautiful purple color, which assays 810 ounces of gold to the ton, or about 23 per pound, while the entire piece is worth about $1.25 per pound. This ore came from the stope of the 100-foot level of the mine. In this connection may be pointed out the very great significance to the Cripple Creek region generally of a strike made in the C. O. D. a few days ago. This was in the 150-foot level, where the ore chute was reached and found to contain the same rich tellurium ore, a sample assay of the pay streak yielding $587 per ton. The significance of this lies in the fact that the C. O. D. mine is at a much less altitude than the mines of the camp generally, and hence at this 250-foot level the rich ore has been found several hundred feet nearer tide water than in any other mine in the camp. This should prove an effectual quietus on the fears entertained by some that the rich veins of the district might not continue to considerable depths.

A meeting was held yesterday between representatives of the mine owners and of the union miners to arrange if possible a compromise to put an end to the Cripple Creek strike. The mine owners were represented by the conference committee recently appointed, consisting of Messrs. J. J. Hagerman, Irving Howbert and H. C. McCreery. The miners were represented by John Calderwood, J. R. Lyon, James Gaughan, R. R. Green and Alex. McIntosh of the Altman union, Walter Russell of the Victor union and W. M. Warden of the Anaconda union. There was at first some delay owing to the fact that the miners' committee had no other proposition to make than eight hours for $3, which was the original contention. A proposition was however submitted by the mine owners for $2.75 for eight hours, with a twenty-minutes lunch time, to be taken out of the eight hours. This was considered a reasonable proposition by all present, but the miners' committee declined to accept it without submitting the matter to the unions. The proposition will be open for two days, and it is now believed that it will be accepted and that work on all the mines will be resumed on Thursday morning. If it is not accepted, the mines will close for an indefinite period. The mine owners have made their best offer to begin with, and no further concessions are possible.

In Other Districts.

A rich free gold strike has been made in the Mogul on Goose creek.

The Hesperus townsite was laid off by a son of ex-Governor Hunt.

A fine strike is reported in the Joe Reynolds mine, Silver Creek, near Georgetown.

During March the Rocky Mountain National bank, Central City, sent $31,000 in gold to the Denver mint.

Twenty tons of ore from the McCourt district has been shipped to Black Hawk for a sample run. If it runs $5 or over a stamp mill will be erected.

The Ibex Mining company which owns the Little Johnnie and other Leadville mines will place on exhibition a stack of gold bricks weighing 5000 ounces and worth $100,000. It is all from the company's mines.

Many of the miners and prospectors of Summit county are making money selling gold and specimens to parties that are trying to start gold camps in other parts of the State. Enterprising parties are buying the good, as it were, but whenever you see crystalized wire gold you can bet that comes from Summit county every time, and be sure of winning. [Dillon Enterprise.

Golden Bear!

There is no stock selling for less than 5c per share, on this market that has the bright outlook that this company has. Lying adjoining the Raven and Elkton it can hardly fail to catch one or the other of these veins. The value of the Raven is $200,000; the Elkton $500,000. At the present price of Golden Eagle their property is selling for about $15,000. Should it not sell for more? We leave it for you to answer.

If Reid Bros. Advertise It
It's a Snap!
We have no pet properties and no favorite clients. Our aim is to sell every customer a snap and hold his business. A well posted real estate agent can sell you a property cheaper than you can buy it yourself. Snaps are getting scarcer every day and prices are advancing. This town is "out of the woods," and if you intend to buy a home you can never buy cheaper than right now.
On North Nevada, in a first rate location, we offer a 50x100 lot, lawn, barn, trees, and a house of 8 rooms, cellar, bath, sanitary plumbing, steel range and electric lights, for $1650. To a reliable purchaser we will make terms of $650 cash and $500 per year.
In one of the best locations in the north part of the city, we have a fine three story house with every modern convenience that we offer at 20 per cent less than cost, if sold soon. It is far cheaper than you can build for.
We offer a big bargain in a 100-foot lot on Wood Avenue. If you mean business we will make you money on this.
